

What to take with you on desert tours

- Your passport - required for check in at the hotel/s included in your tour package.
- Sun hat, sun protection cream and sun glasses, temperatures can be very high in the summer.
- Your swim-suit & towel (there is an outdoor swimming pool at the hotel where you overnight)
- Enough cash to pay for your drinks, single supplement in the hotel, to pay for the optional Horse and Camel Carriage ride and to buy eventual souvenirs, cash points can be quite hard to find in the south.
- Loose trousers are a very handy when you are on a camel.
- Comfortable walking shoes.
- Warm clothes during the evenings in the winter and light comfortable clothes for the summer.
- Apart from your overnight accommodation, toilet paper and soap are not always in a good supply in the south.
- Bottled water and light snacks to keep you going between the stops.
- A map so you can follow the itinerary.
- Your camera and films / memory card/s / batteries
